

How to move the Start Menu to the Left Side of the Taskbar

1. Bring up the Settings window.
2. Click Personalization and Taskbar to navigate to further options.
3. Then double-click Taskbar behaviors to expand its settings.
4. Select Left on the Taskbar alignment drop-down menu. After that, your Start menu will be left-aligned as in the snapshot directly below.
